Letter from the President & CEO

The Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County (CBICC) is a membership organization committed to championing Centre County, convening leaders and influencers on important issues and initiatives and providing leadership that helps businesses and community stakeholders make valuable connections and gain vital resources needed to grow and prosper.

None of this is possible without the support and participation of our member investors.

The CBICC's diverse membership is comprised of more than 600 businesses of all sizes and across all industry sectors, as well as academic institutions, government entities, community organizations, and individuals.

The Centre County Industrial Development Corporation (CCIDC) is the CBICC's legal arm for economic development. The mission is conducted under the banner of the Centre County Economic Development Partnership (CCEDP) with public/private partners, and is focused on entrepreneurial development, business retention and new-business investment.

The CBICC is also a community partner of several other organizations throughout Centre County and works closely with other chambers and economic-development organizations throughout the region to positively impact our economy and enhance the quality of life of everyone in central Pennsylvania.

Through collaborative initiatives such as CentreREADY™, HappyValleyTalent.com, HappyValleyAgventures.com, and DRIVE Forward, the CBICC is addressing issues critical to business growth and competitiveness, including workforce preparedness, agritourism, NIL initiatives with Penn State student athletes, and transportation infrastructure. We invite you to visit our websites to learn more about our partnerships and initiatives and to get involved.

The CBICC is eager to get to know you and your business, and to tell you about the many ways membership can help you succeed through engagement, exposure, education, savings, and workforce/employee development.

Whether you already call Centre County home, are looking to relocate here or just visiting, the CBICC is proud to showcase this thriving community and all it has to offer.

To find out more, please call 814-234-1829 or visit www.cbicc.org.

Here's to much future success!

Sincerely,

Greg Scott

Welcome to Centre County

Centre County, Pennsylvania is a place that combines a vibrant and growing economy with small-town friendliness and big-city amenities.

It's also a place where people get to know their neighbors and put down roots for generations.

With its strategic location at the geographic center of Pennsylvania and the Northeast, a rich cultural heritage, historic communities, abundant natural resources, a top-ranked global research university, award-winning school districts, and a job-ready workforce equipped to support future growth, it's no wonder Centre County is considered one of the best places in the country to live, work, play, and do business.

Centre County also has a growing reputation as a great place to launch a business because of its thriving innovation economy and robust entrepreneurial system — bolstered by its status as the home of Penn State University, and by the university's vital role in creating jobs and boosting economic development in the region.

Penn State

Penn State attracts investment capital and international talent, nurtures and rewards entrepreneurship, provides access to cultural opportunities and collegiate athletics, and works closely with government entities and community stakeholders to develop strategies that promote prosperity and equity for all of our communities.

Business and Industry

Centre County's world-class companies are impacting global initiatives — from NASA technology to vaccines to sensors in automobile factories. Private equity is investing in pharmaceuticals, video production, sensors, manufacturing, electronics, and other industries. Public infrastructure projects include highways, bridges, schools, and more.

And Centre County's unemployment rate is consistently one of the lowest in the state.

Examples of how Centre County powers business and industry:

Invent Penn State: This $30 million initiative utilizes Penn State's expertise in entrepreneurship and innovation to accelerate the movement of great ideas into the marketplace. www.invent.psu.edu

Innovation Park at Penn State: Innovation Park is an ecosystem that merges business, education and research. It offers 118-acres of office, manufacturing and research space. It is part of Penn State and provides access to the university's scientific, engineering, technology, and business resources, as well as support services needed to transfer knowledge from the university to the marketplace.

Ben Franklin Technology Partners/Central & Northern Pennsylvania: This invaluable resource provides startup funding and business support services to tech-based startups and small manufacturers. www.benfranklin.org

Quality of Life

Centre County is affectionately known as “Happy Valley,” and it’s easy to understand why.

You don’t have to choose between economic opportunity and a fantastic quality of life.

You’ll find innovation, livability and fun here.

From the ultimate college town of State College to Victorian Bellefonte, to colonial Boalsburg and charming Millheim, our larger towns and quaint villages offer something for everyone.

The people who call Centre County home enjoy a work-life balance that includes short commutes, a historically low crime rate, clean air, farm-fresh food, access to exceptional health care, all-season recreational activities in a breathtaking landscape, and a vibrant social and entertainment scene for people of all ages.

The county is served by five public school districts, each consistently beating state averages in test scores and graduation rates. Educational opportunities are also available through private and charter schools. Business and technical schools also play a vital role in the development of the region’s skilled and educated workforce.

Centre County also strives to promote racial, religious and cultural inclusivity and is home to a variety of worship centers and diversity programs.

Centre County is just a short drive from four of the country’s 10 largest metropolitan areas — New York City, Washington/Baltimore, Philadelphia/Wilmington/Atlantic City, and Boston. It’s less than 200 miles from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and less than 100 miles from the state capital of Harrisburg. Highway travel is made easy via East-West (I-80) and North-South (I-99) interstate connections.

Delta Air Lines, United Airlines, American Airlines, and Allegiant Air serve Centre County’s University Park Airport. There is also access to a high-capacity transit system and freight and passenger rail service via nearby Lewistown, Huntingdon, Tyrone, and Altoona.

Adventure

The National Geographic Society calls Happy Valley “Adventure Town,” and it’s easy to see why.

In Centre County, you can attend a Big Ten college football game, see a Broadway-caliber play, visit Amish country, view art exhibits, play in a golf tournament, enjoy equestrian activities, tour a winery, visit a museum, or take in a concert by a top-name performer.

There are more than 750,000 acres of public lands surrounding Happy Valley, making it the perfect base camp for your outdoor adventures. It’s a great destination for biking, ATV rides, kayaking, downhill skiing, and camping.

You can hike a mountain, go fly fishing or explore the country’s only all-water cavern and wildlife park — and still make it home in time for dinner.

Festivals

The fun begins in July with the Central PA 4th Fest, the largest volunteer-run fireworks display in the country. From there, downtown State College transforms into an art and music lover’s paradise during the Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts. The People’s Choice Festival takes place the same week in July, while just over the mountain, Philipsburg celebrates Heritage Days.

In August, crowds flock to the Centre County Grange Fair to experience the charm and nostalgia of the only remaining tenting fair in the nation. The Grange Fair has been going strong for 148 years and is a home away from home for people who take up residence in 1,000 tents and 1,500 RVs. Penn State’s Ag Progress Days is also held in August. It’s Pennsylvania’s largest outdoor agricultural exposition and features 400 exhibitors from the U.S. and Canada.

Today, 158,172 people call Centre County home.

If you’re a new resident or a visitor, we welcome you!

We hope you enjoy reading the Guide to Centre County and getting information about where to shop, eat, attend school, find housing, receive health care, enjoy sports, and more.

If you have any questions, the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County and the Happy Valley Adventure Bureau are here to assist you. Feel free to stop by our offices in downtown State College or call us at 814-234-1829 or 814-231-1400 respectively.

Licenses for Field & Stream

Centre County is a mecca for hunting and fishing. General hunting licenses are $20.97 for adults, $101.97 for nonresident adults, and $13.97 for resident seniors. Youths ages 12 to 16 can buy a junior license for $9.97 if they've completed hunter-safety classes. Additional licenses are needed for bear, antlerless deer and certain other types of hunting. You can buy a license through the Pennsylvania Game Commission (570-398-4744; www.pgc.pa.gov) or at sporting-goods stores.

If you're 16 or older, you must have a license to fish in Pennsylvania. Licenses are $22.97 for residents, $11.97 for senior residents, and $52.97 for nonresidents. Visitors can buy a seven-day license for $34.97 or a three-day license for $26.97. If you're fishing for trout, you'll pay an extra $9.97. Licenses are sold through the Fish and Boat Commission (877-707-4085; www.fishandboat.com), county treasurer's office and sporting goods stores. Rates are subject to change.

Bald Eagle

Bald Eagle State Forest, named for the famous Native American Chief Bald Eagle, includes 194,602 acres.

Moshannon

Moshannon State Forest derives its name from "Moss-hanne," or "moose stream," the description of the waterway that runs through the area. The forest totals 190,031 acres on the Allegheny Plateau.

Rothrock

Rothrock State Forest is named for Dr. Joseph Trimble Rothrock, a native of Mifflin County and the commonwealth's first forestry commissioner. He is recognized as the "Father of Forestry" in Pennsylvania. Rothrock State Forest comprises 96,975 acres.

Sproul

Sproul State Forest was named in memory of William C. Sproul, governor of Pennsylvania from 1919 to 1923, and is located in north central Pennsylvania. The largest in the state forest system, Sproul covers 305,450 acres.

Physiographic Regions

Ridge & Valley Province

- Broad Valleys
- Forested Ridges

Appalachian Plateaus Province

- Plateau Foothills
- Plateau

Allegheny Plateau

The northwestern half of Centre County, the Allegheny Plateau, is a forested high plateau divided by deep valleys and fast-moving streams. Despite the richness of its timber stands and the early discovery of coal, the plateau's rugged foothills north of Bald Eagle Creek discouraged westward-bound settlement and remained sparsely settled throughout much of the nineteenth century.

Ridge and Valley

The southeastern ridge and valley half of Centre County, made up of forested sandstone ridges and gently rolling limestone valleys, is framed by Bald Eagle Ridge to the north and Seven Mountains to the south. The eastern slope is cut by Spring Creek and the western slope is cut by Spruce Creek.

The discovery of high-quality iron ore brought settlement to this region, as did the richness of its agricultural land.

Four Seasons in Centre County

In Centre County, we enjoy the best of all seasons. Our winters, typically cold with moderate snowfall, usually yield six snowstorms, each with more than four inches of snow. Our springs generally start in early April as the first warm southwest wind moves in across the valley. Summers are beautiful, with warm and moderately humid days. We usually have a spell of hot weather in mid-July. Many here believe the fall season is our best, as deciduous trees turn magnificent colors and the days trend sunny and mild.

CENTRE FURNACE MANSION TOURS & EXHIBITS:

For current visitor and program information, visit: CentreHistory.org. Gardens and grounds are open daily from dawn to dusk.

For more information, call: 814-234-4779.

Visit the new Centre County Encyclopedia of History and Culture at CentreHistory.org/encyclopedia

The historic Centre Furnace Mansion ironmaster's mansion and adjoining Furnace Stack are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Established in 1791, the site is what remains of the first charcoal iron furnace in Centre County and is the birthplace of the Pennsylvania State University.

Funding provided through a grant made possible by the Happy Valley Adventure Bureau and the Centre County Board of Commissioners.

Personal Taxes

All 35 municipalities assess an earned-income tax of 0.5% to 2.05% for the school district.

County homeowners pay a 7.84-mill real estate tax, plus one of the following rates to their resident school district:

- Bald Eagle: 58.98 mills
- Bellefonte: 50.213 mills
- Keystone Central: 46.24 mills
- Penns Valley: 48.0995 mills
- Philipsburg-Osceola: 51.57 mills
- State College: 46.0875 mills
- Tyrone: 26.47 mills

- Additional real estate taxes range from zero mills in Rush and Burnside townships to 18.26 mills in State College.
- The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania charges a 1% realty transfer tax (collected from the purchaser) and most municipalities charge another 1% (collected from the seller), the proceeds of which are shared between the school district and the municipality.
- Pennsylvania has a 6% sales tax. Exempt items include food and clothing.
- Residents of Pennsylvania pay a flat 3.07% state income tax.

A Great Place to Work

Founded in 1985, Restek develops and manufactures cutting-edge chromatography products at our global HQ in Bellefonte.

We are a 100% employee-owned company, so each of us has a vested interest in our future. And the decisions we make are guided not only by our desire to succeed but also by our connection to our community.

Our founder, Paul Silvis, dreamed of a place where people would look forward to coming to work as much as to going home. Our 350+ employee-owners live that philosophy every day.

Agriculture

Agriculture is deeply embedded in Centre County's heritage, and the industry is a leading driver of the economy throughout the region and state.

Signs of our agricultural roots are everywhere — from Penn State University, which was chartered as the Farmer's High School in 1855, to the beautiful farmland throughout our many picturesque valleys.

Happy Valley Agventures — a joint initiative of the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County and The Happy Valley Adventure Bureau — was launched in 2019 to support Centre County farmers and local growers and producers, and to provide local residents and visitors with a resource to learn about and experience what we grow, craft and create.

In Centre County, century farms not only showcase the region's historic rural charm; they also offer visitors opportunities for education, adventure and escape.

On our small farms, you can stroll through a field of sunflowers — nature's perfect backdrop for memorable family photos — pick your own fresh blooms or blueberries, go on a fall hayride, or even watch a meteor shower with an unhindered view of the night sky. At the many farm stands that dot the landscape, you can purchase everything from locally grown fruits and vegetables and cut flowers, to heirloom pumpkins and delicious baked goods.

Many Centre County restaurant chefs take pride in offering locally sourced ingredients cultivated from their own fields. The result is innovative and flavorful field-to-fork cuisine. Local ingredients, including grapes and apples, also flavor the beer, wine, cider, and spirits found on our popular craft-beverage trail.

Amish-made artisan cheese, as well as preserves, jellies and shrubs — found in fine restaurants, wineries and gourmet food stores throughout the East Coast — are produced and enjoyed at farm stores right here in Centre County.

In the spring, you can appreciate apple blossoms in bloom; in the fall, you can celebrate the harvest at family friendly, on-site farm events.

Any time of year, you will find plenty of ways to discover and explore Centre County's abundant agricultural offerings.

Visit the Happy Valley Agventures website at www.happyvalleyagventures.com to find inspiration and to get started on your adventures!

Technical/ Post-Secondary Education

Career & Technical Center
State College, PA | www.scasd.org
The CTC program of the State College Area School District is for students in grades 9 through 12. Career programs are designed to prepare graduates to enter the workforce in entry-level jobs. Technical preparation programs require students to continue their study at the post-secondary level. Fourteen programs are offered, including accounting, culinary arts, and engineering technology.

Central Pennsylvania Institute of Science and Technology
Pleasant Gap, PA | www.cpi.edu
The Central Pennsylvania Institute of Science and Technology is an alliance of area school districts, serving county residents age 16+. CPI offers more than 60 programs in fields such as carpentry and building construction technology, medical science and technology, and protective services.

Penn State University
University Park, PA
www.admissions.psu.edu
Penn State is a traditional four-year university offering a wide variety of degree programs ranging from accounting to world languages education. The main campus is in State College.

South Hills School of Business & Technology
State College, PA | www.southhills.edu
South Hills School of Business & Technology offers 11 degree and diploma programs at locations in State College and Altoona. Programs are in the fields of healthcare, business, technology, criminal justice, and graphic arts, as well as lifelong learning.

CentreREADY™ is a voluntary collaborative worker-certification initiative of the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County, all five of the county's school districts and its two career/technical training institutions.

The program teaches students core skills for future careers and is designed to build a better local workforce: one that best matches Centre County employers with employees who possess the six desired core skills and competencies necessary to work effectively and succeed in the workplace.

CentreREADY™ represents a true community response to the long-term hiring needs of the region's employers.

Six attributes of a CentreREADY™ worker:

- Work Ethic
- Communication
- Tactfulness/Manners
- Teamwork
- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- Understanding Supervision/World of Work

Since the program began in 2019, 346 students have graduated with the CentreREADY™ designation from Bald Eagle, Bellefonte, Penns Valley, Philipsburg-Osceola and State College High Schools, along with South Hills School of Business and Technology and the Central PA Institute of Science and Technology (CPI).

Student Madeline Krentzman received her CentreREADY™ certification through State College Area High School and believes completing the program helped prepare her for the workforce after college.

"I am thankful to have a certification that incorporates so many of the qualities of a valuable worker on my resume," she said.

Students become CentreREADY™ under curriculums unique to each school. Students who complete the program are recognized during graduation ceremonies and presented with a certificate and honor cord by CBICC leadership.

"CentreREADY™ is a wonderful program that encourages students to strive for the important qualities sought after in the workforce," said Debbie Couturiaux, the coordinator of the Practical Nursing Program at CPI. "CentreREADY™ recognizes and rewards them for achieving standards that will guide them to success."

Bridget Ciolkosz teaches marketing at State College Area High School (SCAHS) and sees first-hand the impact the CentreREADY™ program has on students.

"CentreREADY™ students are able to apply skills they are learning in the classroom to a real-world setting," she said. "They are learning skills they will utilize in any career field."

Students who graduate with the CentreREADY™ designation can display the seal of approval on their resume when applying for jobs. Employers will immediately know which applicants possess the six CentreREADY™ soft skills. Business supporters are also encouraged to display the "We Support CentreREADY™" logo on their website and in their employment advertising.

For more information about how CentreREADY™ prepares talent to excel in Centre County careers, visit CentreREADY.org.

MARKETING IS THE NAME OF THE GAME

Draft student athletes to be a part of your team.

HappyValleyTalent.com

You can now build your company's brand, promote your business or fire up your next event under a new NCAA rule that allows the nation's student athletes — across all divisions and sports — to profit from their name, image and likeness (NIL) through endorsement deals, public appearances, social-media campaigns, sponsorships, and more.

On June 30, 2021, Pennsylvania Gov. Tom Wolf signed legislation to allow college athletes in Pennsylvania to make money through NIL deals. The new law was signed on the same day the NCAA reversed its long-held prohibition against such NIL activity.

HappyValleyTalent.com was launched in the fall of 2021 in response to the new policy. The website is a joint initiative of the Chamber of Business & Industry and the Happy Valley Adventure Bureau.

The online platform connects businesses, organizations and fans with participating athletes, students and alumni. The website is the region's one-stop shop to develop professional relationships and foster mutually beneficial marketing opportunities in the new era of NIL.

"HappyValleyTalent.com is ushering in exciting opportunities for businesses looking for brand-new marketing ideas," said CBICC President & CEO Greg Scott. "It's also an important way for the community to boost the local economy by supporting Penn State's student athletes and helping them achieve their NIL goals here at home."

The initiative is additionally supported by business organizations throughout Centre County and the region, including Downtown Bellefonte Inc. (DBI); Bellefonte

Intervalley Area Chamber of Commerce (BIACC); Moshannon Valley Economic Development Partnership (MVEDP); East Penns Valley Community and Business Association (EPVCBA); Blair County Chamber of Commerce (BCCC); Patton Township Business Association (PTBA); the Downtown State College Improvement District (DID); and Philipsburg Revitalization Corporation (PRC).

For more information about how to connect with student athletes in Centre County, please visit HappyValleyTalent.com.

Note: HappyValleyTalent.com is not connected or affiliated with or specifically endorsed by Penn State University or any university. It is a community effort to encourage engagement between businesses — both local and out of the area — with students as allowed under NIL.

Bus Service

MegaBus, Greyhound Bus Lines and Fullington Trailways provide scheduled bus service from State College. Buses depart for Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Wilkes-Barre, Buffalo, New York City, and connections around the country. Fullington Auto Bus Co. offers charter tours to spots around the East, including Atlantic City, New York City, Niagara Falls, and New England.

Centre Area Transportation Authority (CATA)

(814) 238-CATA (2282) | www.catabus.com

Centre Area Transportation Authority (CATA) provides public transportation within the community, offering conventional transit (CATABus), paratransit (CATARide), commuter (CATACommute) services, and on-demand transportation (CATAGO!) to the residents of Centre County.

Rates: $2.20 each way; free Blue and White Loops circulating the Penn State campus; free Red Link providing cross campus service; seniors age 65+ with a senior transit I.D. card ride free.

CATABus is a fixed-route community bus system that provides service between downtown State College, the Penn State University Park campus and many points of interest, as well as the Borough of Bellefonte and the village of Boalsburg. It also includes fare-free Loop and Link circulator and cross-campus service.

CATARide provides inexpensive curb-to-curb transportation for senior citizens and people whose disabilities prevent their use of traditional fixed-route bus service.

CATACommute service helps long-distance commuters find easy and economical ways to get to and from employment destinations via carpools and vanpools.

CATAGO! is currently serving the Bellefonte, Boalsburg and Pleasant Gap areas. Priced at just $2.20 per ride, CATAGO! provides convenient and flexible scheduling that meets all of your transportation needs.

Park & Ride provides inexpensive perimeter parking for downtown State College business employees. The service is a collaborative partnership between the Borough of State College, CATA, and Penn State.
